MONTPELIER

Fire Chief Wahlen Accepts a Re-appointment on Pressure.

John Wahlen has accepted the appointment as chief of the fire department and assumed his duties. He stated to Mayor Dawley two weeks ago that he would not consider another appointment to the office because he had so much to look after as master mechanic of the Montpelier and Wells River railroad. This state of affairs reached the ears of the members of the fire department and at once they circulated a petition among each company and the hook and ladder boys which resulted in the three petitions being presented to the council Wednesday evening asking for his re-election. It was then arranged that the assistant engineers will carry more of the work than they have been which will relieve the situation. Chief Wahlen was presented at the end of the council meeting by the three petitions offered to the board by the companies that he might know what the feeling among the boys is toward him and as a souvenir of the occasion.

Difficult to Draw.

A teacher asked her class to draw a picture of that which they wished to be when they grew up, and all went diligently to work except one little girl, who only chewed her pencil.

"Don't you know what you want to be when you grow up, Anna?" asked the teacher.

"Yes, I know," replied the little girl, "but I don't know how to draw it. I want to be married."—From "Success Magazine."

RANDOLPH CENTER.

Improved Mail Service Is Promised After July 1.

Beginning July 1, Randolph Center is to have an up-to-date stage service that will place the rural delivery on the same level with those starting from a post office on the railroad. The two mid-day trips will be about the same as now. The evening stage, which carries out the most mail of any trip, will remain in Randolph over night, and leave there for Randolph Center at 7 a. m., arriving at 8 with the big mail of the day, as the bulk of the mail comes on the night trains. The rural carriers can start to serve their routes at 8:30, 3½ hours earlier, making delivery of nine-tenths of the mail, including the Barre Times, 3½ to 4 hours earlier than now, and will return in time to dispatch their collection every day.

He Who is Best Prepared Gets Best Results

THE SULKY PLOW proved itself a power in the land of Vermont last year. This year it is recognized by the best farmers as a necessity. Competition among farmers is just as keen as in any other business (or profession as you may choose to call it) and land well plowed is a first essential to good crops.

I have seven standard makes of Sulky Plows in stock this year. You may choose a plow from this assortment and if it does not do the work it is represented to do BRING IT BACK, the trial is on me.

A. W. ALLEN, Sunnyside Farm.
